

Board of Directors 2025-2026

Meet our Leadership Team

Sally Roe
President

Sally was born and raised in Monticello. She has a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Upper Iowa University. Sally and her husband Dan, operate Pleasant Grain LLC, a commercial grain elevator with 3 locations in Green County. Dan and Sally also have a grain farm with Dan's father Donald, growing mostly corn and soybeans. Sally enjoys spending time with her family. Dan and Sally have 3 children, Natalie, Nick and Alex. "I love being a part of this community, it feels like home. I really enjoy being part of the Monticello Chamber of Commerce and helping our community grow."

Charis Trolinger
Vice President

A Monroe native, Charis and her husband, Trey, currently reside in Green County. Charis studied Psychology at the University of Milwaukee, and is the current branch manager of CMG Bank- Monticello. She loves the unique quality of Monticello being a tight knit community, where everyone knows and supports each other. Always looking to get more involved in other community groups, Charis wants to make a difference. She is excited to be part of the Chamber, to meet all of the people in and around Monticello, and to ultimately have a positive impact on this community and help it grow.

Elise Constantini
Secretary

A Monticello resident since 2015, Elise brings a powerhouse of financial expertise to our board. With a background in Finance and Marketing from UW-Oshkosh and a career spanning Associated Bank and The Bank of New Glarus, she currently serves as an Internal Credit Review Officer at Compeer Financial. As a busy mom of three, Elise is a familiar face at school sports and clubs. Having found a true home here, she is dedicated to the town's success. "Monticello welcomed this single mom and her three young kids and I have loved giving back to the community I have come to love."

Tracy Spotts
Treasurer

As a Monroe native, Tracy grew up working with her family's commercial grain elevator & chemical/fertilizer business and graduated from UW-Madison with a Bachelor of Science /Journalism degree with an emphasis in Marketing. After returning to Green County in 2003, she began Agri-Management Services, LLC providing bookkeeping, financial planning, and farm management services, and continues to operate as an independent crop insurance agent for Premier Insurance Solutions-Monroe. She and her husband, Chad, own Spotts Grain Farms, Inc. and reside with their two sons, Noah & Troy, on their farm in rural Monroe, where she is also a part of their family's greenhouse, The Potting Shed. "It is so exciting to be part of a thriving and growing business community. Monticello has so much to offer. I look forward to helping facilitate continued growth, and being a resource for all of our members and community supporters."

Janelle Rucker
Director

Janelle was born and raised in Lafayette and Green County. Janelle is the Business Banking Development Officer for Woodford State Bank. Janelle is the President of the Monroe Morning Optimist Club, Monroe Chamber Ambassador, member of the Woman's Club of Monroe, board member for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Green County and Green County Leaders 2023 Alumni. Janelle resides in Orfordville with her husband, Derek and their two boys. In Janelle's spare time she loves to travel, spend time with family and friends, garden and landscape. "I love working in Green County and connecting different communities together!"

Carson Crist
Director

A Monticello resident since 2022 (and Green County resident since 2019), Carson is proud to be a member of the Monticello Chamber of Commerce. He has a Bachelor of Science degree in Building Construction Management and Minor in Business from UW-Platteville. Carson and his wife, Katie, own and operate Crist Real Estate Group. They have three young children. Carson enjoys spending time with family, making memories in the outdoors and working on remodel projects around their country property. Carson is excited to continue growing roots in the Monticello area as it has been a wonderful area to raise a family thanks to its small town charm.
